Le was a great TF — I really appreciate all of his help this past semester.
Le is a fantastic TF. The few lectures I have heard him give (at review sessions, during class) are clear, applicable, and do much to clarify course material. He is extremely responsive on Slack and always helpful.
Le is such a great TF. He is so helpful and generates so much excitement for the field. He makes sure all the students have all the help they need to succeed. I appreciate him!
Le Bao is the best TF I have ever met.
Le is the wonderful TF! His superb supports and advice are so valuable for us. He literally knows everything about R and Tidyverse, and always kind to answer our questions. Without him, I could not have learned thus much. Moreover, not only he offers many OHs, he is very accessible via Slack. I would sincerely appreciate his hard work and supports for us.
Le was an incredible TF in every way. His lectures were interesting and useful, he was accessible outside of class to help with p-sets or projects, he provided thorough feedback, and he was always friendly and supportive.
Le has been without a doubt the highlight of my Harvard education. Not only is he incredibly accessible, he's also very kind and extremely knowledgeable.
Le is always very eager and ready to provide assistance with the course. While he did not teach section on a weekly basis, he held office hours/study halls, which were effective for getting to better understand the course content and the connection between the lecture and the weekly problem set.
Extremely helpful/available for questions
Le is truly one of the best TFs I've encountered at Harvard. He is kind, caring, so committed to his students' success, patient, and encouraging. At first, I wasn't sure Gov 52 was for me; it was Le who believed in me, supported me, and helped me thrive. He is truly a gem of a teacher, and one-of-a-kind. He's great at explaining tricky concepts, good at aiding students, flexible and accessible, and overall, a great instructor.
Le is an amazing teaching fellow. He is always there to help and gives great advice.
Le was very helpful, available, and gave useful feedback in a timely manner. Because we didn't have sections that he led exclusively, I can't comment too much on traditional instruction.
